

COMMUNITY MEETING FOR KEALAKEKUA BAY STATE HISTORICAL PARK
MASTER PLAN UPDATE & ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

Saturday January 30, 2016
1 – 4 PM

LOCATION: Konawaena Elementary School Cafeteria
81-901 Onouli Road
Kealahou, Hawai'i 96750

PURPOSE: Information sharing and gathering. DLNR's Division of State Parks has developed three visions for the future at Kealahou Bay. At this meeting, members of the community will discuss the alternative plans for the State Historical Park and help State Parks decide on a preferred alternative.

FORMAT: Open house, followed by a guided group discussion, then an open discussion. Participants will share their views and concerns, and will be able to record comments and questions. Please join us at any time during the meeting to share your thoughts.

AGENDA:

- 1 PM Open House
- Information about the Master Plan and the alternatives will be posted at stations. Participants will be asked to circulate and look at the alternatives, so they can learn more about them, and share comments and questions. Members of the consultant team will write up comments.
- 2:30 Group Discussion
- Welcome (Curt Cottrell, State Parks)
  - Brief summary of the Master Plan/EIS process (John Kirkpatrick, Belt Collins Hawaii LLC)
  - Summary of comments made during the Open House
  - Discussion: Carrie Kuwada Phipps (Facilitator) and Participants
    - o Issues and Concerns for Ka'awaloa
    - o Issues and Concerns for Nāpō'opo'o
    - o Issues and Concerns for the Bay
    - o General discussion – Ms. Phipps will make sure all participants have a chance to share their thoughts

Participants will be given:

- Maps of Ka'awaloa and Nāpō'opo'o sections of the State Historical Park for the three alternatives
- Matrix comparing these alternatives and the No Action alternative
- A one-page summary comparing the changes proposed in the three alternatives

Please share any questions or comments with our consultant team at Belt Collins Hawaii LLC. They can be reached at Kealahou@bchdesign.com or at (808) 521-5361. Please ask for John Kirkpatrick. Thanks!
