The Aquatic Invasive Species team relies on cooperation with other conservation organizations and supporters to help manage, protect, and restore the valuable natural resources and marine ecosystems found in Kāne`ohe Bay and throughout the Hawaiian Islands. These efforts help to reestablish a healthy balance in the marine environment and preserve Hawai`i's precious and unique aquatic life for future generations.

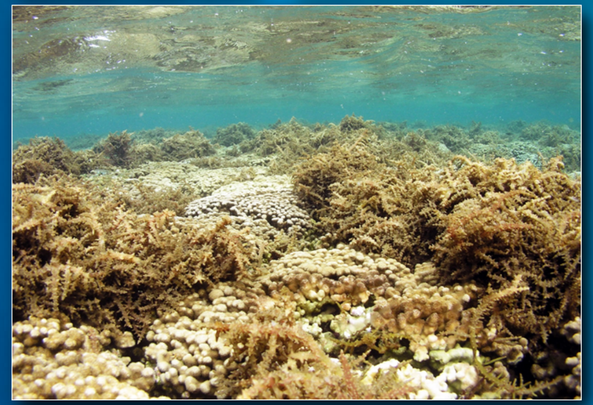
For more information, visit the Division of Aquatic Resources page at http://dlnr.hawaii.gov/dar/

or the Hawaii Super Sucker Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/noalienseaweed

Photo Credit: Catlin Seaview Survey 2014

Hawaii Division of Aquatic Resources

Aquatic Invasive Species Program



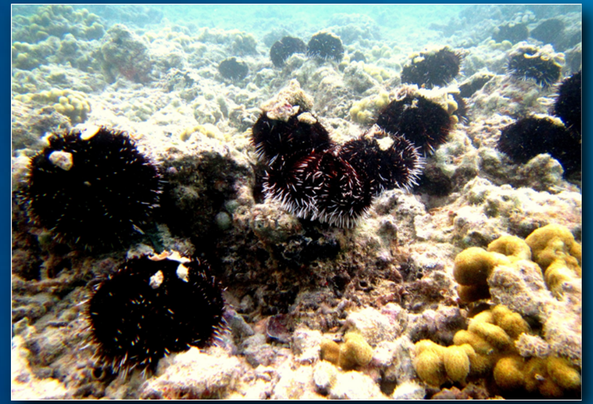


Photo Credit: Catlin Seaview Survey 2014

Department of Land and Natural Resources

State of Hawaii