NOTICE OF PENDING DISPOSITION OF ABANDONED OR SEIZED PROPERTY

TO: Whom it May Concern

Subject: Notice of Abandoned or Seized Property found within the Ala Wai Small Boat Harbor, Kalia, Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaii

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) §171-31.5, of the intent of the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) to dispose of personal property found on state land, to wit, the Ala Wai Small Boat Harbor, Kalia, Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaii, during the period of 2000 - 2015. The property having been found abandoned or seized, and subsequently recovered by the Department of Land and Natural Resources, is more particularly described in Attachment A, which is attached hereto.

YOU ARE HEREBY GIVEN NOTICE THAT THE PROPERTY WILL BE DISPOSED OF AFTER

October 10th, 2020

Under HRS §171-31.5(e), you may repossess the indicated property prior to disposition "upon proof of entitlement and payment of all unpaid rent, debts, charges, and fines owing and all handling, storage, appraisal, advertising, and any other expenses incurred in connection with the proposed disposition of the abandoned or seized property."

Disposition. DLNR may sell, donate, or otherwise dispose of property abandoned or seized on state land. If sold, the proceeds, after deduction of all charges, fines, expenses of handling, storage, appraisal, advertising, and other sale expenses, shall be first offset against any amounts owed by the owner to the state. Any amount remaining shall be held in trust for the owner of the property for 30 days, after which the proceeds shall be paid into DLNR's appropriate special fund or to the general fund if no special fund exists. If the property has an estimated value of $1,000 or more, sale of the property shall be by public auction through oral tenders in the county where the property was abandoned or seized, after public notice of the disposition at least once statewide or in a publication of local circulation. If no bid is received, the property may be sold by negotiation, disposed of or sold as junk, kept by DLNR, or donated to any other government agency or charitable organization. If the property has an estimated value below $1,000, there is no requirement of public notice and public auction, but instead the property may be sold by negotiation, disposed of or sold as junk, kept by DLNR, or donated to any other government agency or charitable organization. HRS §171-31.5(f). Any amounts owed the state by the owner of the property may be deducted from any proceeds of a sale of the property, with the remaining proceeds held in trust for the owner for thirty days, after which the remaining proceeds shall be paid to the appropriate DLNR special fund or to the state general fund if no special fund exists. HRS §171-31.5(g).

Liability. The state, its officers, employees, and agents shall not be liable to the owner of abandoned or seized property because of any disposition of the property made pursuant to §171-31.5, HRS,

This notice is to be delivered by certified mail if the address of the owner of the property is known or can be determined. Where the identity or address of the owner is unknown or cannot be determined, this notice shall be posted on the premises where the property was abandoned or seized.

Please contact Officer Fagota Tataipu Jr. of the Division of Conservation and Resources Enforcement at (808) 587-0077 prior to the indicated disposition date if you intend to seek repossession of the property.
