

Forest Birds at HCC 2024

Each title is hyperlinked to the online program. Click for authors and session details.

Tuesday, July 30

11:30-1:00	Film Screening: "Edge of Extinction: Mosquito Control and the Race to Protect Hawai'i's Native Forest Birds" (Rm 315)
1:00-3:00	'Ōiwi Perspectives on Native Species and Ecosystems (Rm 316B/C)
1:00-3:00	When Should We Move Species Outside Their Range as Islands Change? Taking Smart Risks and Making Good Decisions (Rm 315)
3:15-5:15	Optimizing Conservation Actions for 268 At-Risk Species Across Maui Nui (Rm 316A)
3:15-5:15	Piloting a Process for the Production of Predator Control Recommended Management Practices (Rm 315A)

Wednesday, July 31

8:15-10:15	Speed Talks: Stroll Down Plants & Wildlife Lane (Rm 316A)
8:15-10:15	Majestic Manu of Hawai'i (Rm 314)
3:15-5:15	Towards automated acoustic monitoring of Hawaiian birds (Rm 316A)

Thursday, August 1

1:00-3:00	Working with the Tools of the Trade- Invasive Small Vertebrate Trapping and Control Training with a Hawaiian Focus (Rm 311)
2:00-3:00	'O Ka Lele A Nei 'Āuna- a new oli for the health of our Hawaiian birds (Rm 314)