WILLIAM FREITAS MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF TEMPLE OF LONO
MOTION TO BOARD OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO DISMISS
HA-3568; (DOC. 516)

Comes now, William Freitas Pro-se ("Petitioner") in support of Memorandum for Temple of Lono, Motion to Board of Land and Natural Resources to Dismiss HA-3568
Permit Application.

I. Introduction

In "Petitioners" view of Documents in <http://dlnr.hawaii.gov/mk/documents-library/>.
DOC B.30 (DOC R-1) Conservation District Use Application ("CDUA") HA-3568

II. ARGUMENT

In view of Doc B.30 CDUA HA-3568 Reinforces and states, Mauna Kea is a sacred place of worship for continued spiritual cultural religious practices of Native Hawaiian people, as such, Scattering of cremation remains, Ceremonies of Prayers and Offerings on AHU ("Stone Shrines") or up right POHAKU as markers of an particular area for Ohana ("Native Hawaiian Family") to Identify for Prayers and Offering Ceremonies for Placement of Piko ("Umbilical cord"), Placenta ("After Birth") and Burial Internment.

These Cultural Religious Spiritual Practices are Acts of Sacredness and should be Respected and Protected by laws set forth by the Hawaii State Agencies directly involved Such as BLNR and DOCARE officers.

III. Issues of Desecration

1. Continued efforts of desecration to Area of proposed development in north Ka'ohe platue by State Agencies and foreign development.
2. 2015 arrest of Native Hawaiians Protecting a sacred place of worship.
3. August 25, 2015 bulldozing of AHU Kauakoko ("Stone Shrine") Recorded in Evidentiary Hearing Doc's T-3.k report to DOCARE.
4. March 7, 2017 Litter Sanitation of Hale Kukia'i Mauna ("Place of Worship") Recorded in Evidentiary Hearing Doc's T-3.k2 and T-3.k3 report to DOCARE.

These Acts of Desecration are subjected to the statues of the State of Hawaii with Obligation to BLNR and DOCARE enforcement agencies to take in account its Responsibility for protection of the Laws that it is to enforce in reference to the issues

Stated above. These issues are in line with statues that protect religious practices, of Native Hawaiians and non-native hawaiiains, along with protection of spiritual Religious places of worship and protection of sacred burial practices.

In closing, it will be most vital to the statues subjected to the State of Hawaii and its State agencies to take in account its integrity in making decisions for the applicant of the CDUA in consideration of the statues that have been violated, and recorded in these proceedings of this contested case hearing.

I William Freitas pro-se ("Petitioner") strongly encourage the Board of Natural Resources to take in consideration of the issues stated in this Joinder to the Temple of Lono Doc. 516.
