Mehana Kihoi's Joinder to Mauna Kea Anaina Hou Motion Requesting Time to Respond to Exhibit Objections And Related Matters And 2) Temple of Lono's Joinder To Mauna Kea Anaina Hou Motion Requesting Time To Respond To Exhibit Objections And Related Matters

I, Mehana Kihoi, respectfully joins the Mauna Kea Anaina Hou Motion Requesting Time To Respond To Exhibit Objections, And Temple of Lono's Joinder To Mauna Kea Anaina Hou's Motion Requesting Time To Respond to Exhibit Objections And Related Matters.

As noted by Mauna Kea Anaina Hou, the Hearings Officer did not schedule any time for parties to respond to objections filed to the admissions of exhibits.

As also noted by Mauna Kea Anaina Hou, the Applicant and TIO filed multiple objections to more than 300 exhibits being moved into evidence.

The Applicant and TIO also reserved the right to file additional objections once the transcripts are available and/or once additional information is available about certain exhibits, and/or as part of the findings of fact and conclusions of law.

This massive filing of objections goes counter to the express intent of the Hearing Officer, as laid out in the Contested Case Hearing.

For these reasons, I, Petitioner, Mehana Kihoi, submit this combined Joinder and Motion.
