§13-1-26 Petitions for adoption, amendment, or repeal of rules. (a) Any interested person may petition the board for the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule.

(b) Petitions for proposed rulemaking shall set forth the text of any proposed rule or amendment desired or specifying the rule the repeal of which is desired and stating concisely the nature of the petitioner's interest in the subject matter and the reasons for seeking the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the rule and shall include any facts, views, arguments, and data deemed relevant by petitioner. The board may require the petitioner to notify persons or governmental agencies known to be interested in the proposed rulemaking of the existence of the filed petitions. No request for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule which does not conform to the requirements set forth above shall be considered by the board.

(c) Petitions for proposed rulemaking shall become matters of public record upon filing. The board shall within thirty days following the filing of the petition either deny the petition in writing or initiate public rulemaking procedures. No public hearing, oral argument, or other form of proceedings need be held on the petition. If the board determines that the petition discloses sufficient reasons in support of the relief requested to justify the institution of public rulemaking proceedings, the procedures to be followed shall be as set forth in section 91-3, HRS, §13-1-21 and §13-1-22. When the board determines that the petition does not disclose sufficient reasons to justify the institution of public rulemaking procedures, or where the petition for rulemaking fails in any material respect to comply with the requirements of these rules, the petitioner shall be notified and given the grounds for the denial. The provisions of this section shall not operate to prevent the board, on its own motion, from acting on any matter disclosed in any petition. #### SUBCHAPTER 4

DECLARATORY RULINGS

§13-1-27 Petition for declaratory ruling. (a) On the petition of an interested person, the board may issue a declaratory order regarding the applicability of any statutory provision or of any rule or order of the board.

(b) The petition shall contain the following:

- (1) The name, address, and telephone number of the petitioner;
  - (2) A statement of the nature of the petitioner's interest, including reasons for submission of the petition;
  - (3) A designation of the specific provision, rule, or order in question;
  - (4) A clear and concise statement of the position or contention of the petitioner;
  - (5) A memorandum of authorities, containing a full discussion of the reasons, including legal authorities, in support of such position or contention; and
  - (6) The signature of each petitioner.
- (c) Any petition which does not conform to the foregoing requirements may be rejected.
- (d) The board may order the petitioner to give notice of the petition to designated persons and the public or may itself provide such notice.
- (e) In its discretion, the board may permit interested persons to intervene in proceedings for declaratory orders when it finds that such participation will assist the board in its consideration of the matter.
- (f) The board may, for good cause, refuse to issue a declaratory order. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the board may so refuse where:
- (1) The question is speculative or purely hypothetical and does not involve existing facts or facts which can reasonably be expected to exist in the near future;
  - (2) The petitioner's interest is not of the type which would give the petitioner standing to maintain an action if such petitioner were to seek judicial relief;
  - (3) The issuance of the declaratory order may adversely affect the interests of the board or any of its officers or employees in litigation which is pending or may reasonably be expected to arise; or
  - (4) The matter is not within the jurisdiction of the board.

(g) The board shall consider each petition submitted and, within a reasonable time after the submission thereof, either deny the petition in writing, stating its reason for such denial, or issue a declaratory order on the matters contained in the petition.

(h) Hearing:

(1) Although in the usual course of processing a petition for a declaratory ruling no formal hearing shall be granted to the petitioner, the board may, in its discretion, order such proceeding set down for hearing.

(2) Any petitioner or person admitted as an intervenor who desires a hearing on a petition for declaratory ruling shall set forth in detail in a written request the reasons why the matters alleged in the petition, together with supporting affidavits or other written evidence and briefs or memoranda or legal authorities, will not permit the fair and expeditious disposition of the petition and, to the extent that such request for hearing is dependent upon factual assertion, shall accompany such request by affidavit establishing such factors.

(i) If the board orders a hearing it may require the petitioner to give notice of the hearing to designated persons or to the public or may itself provide such notice. In the event a hearing is ordered by the board, §§ 91-9 through 91-13, HRS, shall govern the proceeding.

(j) An order disposing of a petition shall be applicable only to the factual situation alleged in the petition or set forth in the order. The order shall not be applicable to different factual situations or where additional facts not considered in the order exist. Such order shall have the same force and effect as other orders issued by the board.

(k) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, the board may, on its own motion or upon request but without notice or hearing, issue a declaratory order to terminate a controversy or to remove uncertainty. [Eff 6/22/81; am 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §171-6) Imp: HRS §§91-8, 92-16)

SUBCHAPTER 5

CONTESTED CASE PROCEEDINGS

§13-1-28 Contested case hearings. (a) When required by law, the board shall hold a contested case hearing upon its own motion or on a written petition of any government agency or any interested person.

(b) The contested case hearing shall be held after any public hearing which by law is required to be held on the same subject matter.

(c) Any procedure in a contested case may be modified or waived by stipulation of the parties. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-9, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §91-9)

§13-1-29 Request for hearing. (a) On its own motion, the board may hold a contested case hearing. Others must both request a contested case and petition the board to hold a contested case hearing. An oral or written request for a contested case hearing must be made to the board no later than the close of the board meeting at which the subject matter of the request is scheduled for board disposition. An agency or person so requesting a contested case must also file (or mail a postmarked) written petition with the board for a contested case no later than ten calendar days after the close of the board meeting at which the matter was scheduled for disposition. For good cause, the time for making the oral or written request or submitting a written petition or both may be waived.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in section 13-1-31.1, the formal written petition for a contested case hearing shall contain concise statements of:

- (1) The nature and extent of the requestor's interest that may be affected by board action on the subject matter that entitles the requestor to participate in a contested case;
- (2) The disagreement, if any, the requestor has with an application before the board;
- (3) The relief the requestor seeks or to which the requestor deems itself entitled;
- (4) How the requestor's participation would serve the public interest; and
- (5) Any other information that may assist the board in determining whether the requestor meets the criteria to be a party pursuant to section 13-1-31. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §91-2) (Imp: HRS §91-9)

§13-1-29.1 Determination of entitlement to a contested case hearing. The board without a hearing may deny a request or petition or both for a contested case when it is clear as a matter of law that the request concerns a subject that is not within the adjudicatory jurisdiction of the board or when it is clear as a matter of law that the petitioner does not have a legal right, duty, or privilege entitling one to a contested case proceeding. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §91-2) (Imp: HRS §91-9)

§13-1-30 Filing fee. When an application involves a conservation district use permit (including a request for a permit, modification of a permit, violation of a permit, or revocation of a permit), the request for a contested case hearing shall be accompanied with a $100.00 nonrefundable filing fee or a request for waiver of this fee. The chairperson may waive the filing fee for any person upon a showing of financial hardship. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 183C-3) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 183C-3)

§13-1-31 Parties. (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 13-1-31.1, parties to a contested case shall be determined within a reasonable time following the ten-day period following the board meeting, the presiding officer shall notify all persons and agencies, including the applicant or alleged violator, as the case may be, who timely petitioned for the contested case hearing of the date and time for a hearing to determine whether any or all of the persons and agencies seeking to participate in the contested case hearing are entitled to be parties in the contested case. Such notice shall also set the time for filing any objections to the admission of any requestor as a party to the contested case. Without a hearing, an applicant or an alleged violator shall be a party.

(b) The following persons or agencies shall be admitted as parties:

- (1) All government agencies whose jurisdiction includes the land in question shall be admitted as parties upon timely application.
- (2) All persons who have some property interest in the land, who lawfully reside on the land, who are adjacent property owners, or who otherwise can demonstrate that they will be so directly and immediately affected by the requested action that their interest in the proceeding is clearly distinguishable from that of the general public shall be admitted as parties upon timely application.

(c) Other persons who can show a substantial interest in the matter may be admitted as parties. The board may approve such requests if it finds that the requestor's participation will substantially assist the board in its decision making. The board may deny any request to be a party when it appears that:

- (1) The position of the requestor is substantially the same as the position of a party already admitted to the proceedings;

and

- (2) The admission of additional parties will not add substantially new relevant information or the addition will make the proceedings inefficient and unmanageable.

(d) All persons with similar interests seeking to be admitted as parties shall be considered at the same time so far as possible.

(e) If any party opposes another person's request to be a party, the party may file objections within the time set forth by the presiding officer.

(f) The hearing to determine parties to the contested case may be conducted by the board or the presiding officer, or by a hearing officer appointed by the board. At such hearing, evidence and argument shall be limited to matters necessary to determine whether the requestor shall be admitted as a party. Only a party objecting to a requestor's admission as a party shall have the opportunity to cross-examine a requestor or the requestor's witness; provided, however, that the board or presiding officer or hearing officer may cross-examine any witness at such hearing. The hearing to determine parties may be waived upon concurrence of the applicant and all requestors.

(g) If the hearing to determine parties to the contested case was not conducted by the board, and the person who conducted such hearing recommends that any agency or person requesting to be a party should not be allowed to participate in the contested case, such recommendation and the reasons therefor shall be immediately submitted to the board in writing. The requestor whose request is recommended for denial shall have the opportunity to file objections to the recommendation. Such recommendation shall be acted upon by the board as soon as practicable and shall be decided, by written order, not later than the commencement of the contested case hearing.

(h) A person whose request to be admitted as a party has been denied by the board may appeal that denial to the circuit court pursuant to section 91-14, HRS. [Eff 9/7/82; am 11/1/85; am and comp 2/27/09]

(Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-9, 91-9.5)

§13-1-31.1 Hearings of violations.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 13-1-29(b) and section 13-1-31, when a violation is alleged for which an administrative remedy is provided and with respect to which the alleged violator is entitled to a contested case hearing, a contested case shall be held upon the petition of the alleged violator, provided that the petition is made in accordance with the provisions of section 13-1-29(a). No person or government agency other than the department and alleged violator shall be admitted as parties in such proceedings. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-9)

§13-1-31.2 Notice of hearing. After a determination is made that a contested case hearing is required and the parties have been determined, a written notice of hearing shall be served on parties by registered or certified mail in accordance with section 91-9.5(a), HRS, and shall be served on all persons or agencies admitted as a party at their last recorded addresses at least fifteen days before the hearing date. If notice by publication is permitted under section 91-9.5(b), it shall be published at least once in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation. The last published notice shall appear at least fifteen calendar days prior to the hearing date. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-9, 91-9.5)

§13-1-32 Conduct of hearing. (a) Contested case hearings shall be conducted in accordance with this subchapter, and chapter 91, HRS.

(b) The board may conduct the hearing or, the board in its discretion may delegate the conduct of the contested case hearing to a hearing officer, in which case the chairperson shall select such hearing officer. As used in this section and in sections 13-1-33, 13-1-34, 13-1-35, 13-1-36, and 13-1-39, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term "presiding officer" shall mean the presiding officer as defined in section 13-1-2 when the hearing is conducted by the board, but shall mean the hearing officer when the conduct of the hearing has been delegated to a hearing officer.

(c) The presiding officer shall have the power to give notice of the hearing, administer oaths, compel attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence, examine witnesses, certify to official acts, issue subpoenas, rule on offers of proof, receive relevant evidence, hold conferences before and during hearings, rule on objections or motions, fix times for submitting documents, briefs, and dispose of other matters that normally and properly arise in the course of a hearing authorized by law that are necessary for the orderly and just conduct of a hearing. If the hearing is conducted by the board, the board members may examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(d) The presiding officer shall provide that a verbatim record of the evidence presented at any hearing is taken unless waived by all the parties. Any party may obtain a certified transcript of the proceedings upon payment of the fee established by law for a copy of the transcript.

(e) In hearings on applications, petitions, complaints, and violations, the applicant, petitioner, complainant, or in the case of violations, the department shall make the first opening statement and the last closing argument unless the board directs otherwise. Other parties shall be heard in such order as the presiding officer directs.

(f) Where a party is represented by more than one counsel or representative, they may allocate witnesses between them but only one of the counsel or representative shall be permitted to cross-examine a witness or state any objections or make closing arguments.

(g) Each party shall have the right to conduct such cross-examinations of witnesses as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the relevant facts and shall have the right to submit rebuttal evidence, subject to limitations by the presiding officer.

(h) To avoid unnecessary or repetitive evidence, the presiding officer may limit the number of witnesses, the extent of direct or cross examination or the time for testimony upon a particular issue. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-9, 92-16)

§13-1-32.1 Conduct of hearing with only one party. Where the applicant is the sole party in the contested case, the board or the hearing officer, as the case may be, shall consider and give appropriate weight to the records on file with the board directly relating to the application, including, but not limited to, staff submittals to the board, if any; provided, however, that the staff shall not be made parties to the contested case nor be compelled to give testimony on any documents within the file unless the board or the hearing officer deems it necessary to a just disposition of the case. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-9, 171-6)

§13-1-32.2 Enforcement by department. In contested cases involving alleged violations of law, to the extent necessary, the department shall be treated as a party for the purpose of establishing the agency's case and staff members may be called as witnesses. The department's activities in relation to the enforcement action shall be performed or supervised by a first deputy to the chairperson. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §91-9)

§13-1-32.3 Discovery. Depositions of witnesses and interrogatories shall not be allowed except upon agreement of the parties. The presiding officer may require parties to file and serve upon all other parties written witness statements and exhibits and to establish a schedule for such filings. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-9, 171-6)

§13-1-32.4 Records on file with board. Records directly relating to the application that are on file with the board, including, but not limited to, the record of the public hearing (if held), shall be a part of the record of the contested case; provided, however, that any party may object, in the manner provided in section 13-1-35, to any part of such record. [Eff and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-9, 171-6)

§13-1-33 Procedure for witnesses. (a)
Witnesses may be subpoenaed as set forth below:

- (1) Requests for the issuance of subpoenas, requiring the attendance of a witness for the purpose of taking oral testimony before the board shall be in writing, and shall state the reasons why the testimony of the witness is believed to be material and relevant to the issues involved. Only parties or a board member may request the issuance of a subpoena.
- (2) Requests for the issuance of subpoenas for the production of documents or records shall be in writing, shall specify the particular document or record, or part thereof, desired to be produced; and shall state the reasons why the production thereof is believed to be material and relevant to the issues involved. Only parties or a board member may requests the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

(b) Subpoenas may be issued by the presiding officer. No subpoena shall be issued unless the party requesting the subpoena has complied with this section giving the name and address of the desired witness and tendering the proper witness and mileage fees. Signed and sealed blank subpoenas shall not be issued to anyone. The name and address of the witness shall be inserted in the original subpoena, a copy of which shall be filed in the proceeding. Subpoenas shall state at whose request the subpoena is issued. Requests for subpoenas shall be filed not later than three business days before the scheduled hearing.

(c) Witnesses summoned shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in circuit courts of the State of Hawaii and such fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose request the witness appears. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §92-16)

§13-1-34 Motions. (a) All motions other than those made during a hearing shall be made in writing, shall state the relief sought, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit, or declaration, or memorandum setting forth the grounds upon which they are based. The presiding officer shall set the time for filing all motions and opposing memoranda, if any.

(b) Copies of all motions, affidavits, declarations, and memoranda shall be served on all other parties to the hearing within the time set by the presiding officer. The original shall be filed with the board with certificate of service.

(c) Failure to serve or file an affidavit, declaration, or memorandum in opposition to a motion or failure to appear at the hearing on the motion, if held, shall be deemed a waiver of objection to the granting or denial of the motion. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §91-7) may exercise discretion in the admission or rejection of evidence and the exclusion of immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious evidence as provided by law with a view of doing substantial justice.

§13-1-35 Evidence. (a) The presiding officer

(b) The presiding officer shall rule on the admissibility of all evidence. The rulings may be reviewed by the board in determining the matter on its merits.

(c) When objections are made to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the grounds relied upon shall be stated briefly. Formal exceptions to rulings are unnecessary and need not be taken.

(d) An offer of proof for the record shall consist of a statement of the substance of the evidence to which objection has been sustained, or the submission of the evidence itself.

(e) With the approval of the presiding officer, a witness may read testimony into the record on direct examination. Before any prepared testimony is read, unless excused by the presiding officer, the witness shall deliver copies thereof to the presiding officer and all counsel parties. Admissibility shall be subject to the rules governing oral testimony. If the presiding officer deems that substantial saving in time will result, a copy of the prepared testimony may be received in evidence without reading, provided that copies thereof shall have been served upon all parties and the presiding officer five days before the hearing or if such prior service is waived, to permit proper cross examination of the witnesses on matters contained in the prepared testimony.

(f) If relevant and material matter is offered in evidence in a document containing other matters, the party offering it shall designate specifically the matter so offered. If the other matter in the document would burden the record, at the discretion of the presiding officer, the relevant and material matter may be read into the record or copies of it received as an exhibit. Other parties shall be afforded opportunity at the time to examine the document, and to offer in evidence other portions believed material and relevant.

- (g) Exhibits shall be prepared as follows:
- (1) Documents, pleadings, correspondence and other exhibits shall be legible and must be prepared on paper 8-1/2 x 11 inches in size. Charts and other oversized exhibits must be bound or folded to the respective approximate size, where practical. Wherever practicable, sheets of each exhibit shall be numbered and data and other figures shall be set forth in tabular form.
  - (2) When exhibits are offered in evidence, the original and one copy, unless otherwise waived by the board, shall be furnished to the presiding officer for the board's use with adequate copies for review by other parties, unless the copies have been previously furnished or the presiding officer directs otherwise.

(h) If any matter contained in a document on file as a government record with the department is offered in evidence, unless directed otherwise by the presiding officer, the document need not be produced as an exhibit, but may be received in evidence by reference, provided that the particular portions of the document are specifically identified and otherwise competent, relevant, and material. If testimony in proceedings other than the one being heard is offered in evidence, a copy shall be presented as an exhibit, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer.

(i) Official notice may be taken of such matters as may be judicially noticed by the courts of the State of Hawaii. Official notice may also be taken of generally recognized technical or scientific facts within the specialized knowledge of the board when parties are given notice either before or during the hearing of the material so noticed and afforded the opportunity to contest the facts so noticed.

(j) At the hearing, the presiding officer may require the production of further evidence upon any issue. Upon agreement of the parties, the presiding officer may authorize the filing of specific documentary evidence as a part of the record within a fixed time.

(k) The party initiating the proceeding and, in the case of proceedings on alleged violations of law, the department, shall have the burden of proof, including the burden of producing evidence as well as the burden of persuasion. The quantum of proof shall be a preponderance of the evidence. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-9, 91-10)

§13-1-36 Prehearing conference; exchange of exhibits; briefs. (a) The presiding officer may hold or cause to be held pre-hearing conferences with the parties for the purpose of formulating or simplifying the issues, written testimony, setting of schedules, exchanging names of witnesses, limitation of number of witnesses, and such other matters as may expedite orderly conduct and disposition of the proceeding as permitted by law.

(b) The presiding officer may request briefs setting forth the issues, facts and legal arguments upon which the parties intend to rely and the presiding officer may fix the conditions and time for the filing of briefs and the number of pages. Exhibits may be reproduced in an appendix to a brief. A brief of more than twenty pages shall contain a subject index and table of authorities. [Eff 9/7/82; am and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §91-9)

§13-1-37 Ex parte (single party) communications. (a) No party or person petitioning to be a party in a contested case, nor the party's or such person's to a proceeding before the board nor their employees, representatives or agents shall make an unauthorized ex parte communication either oral or written concerning the contested case to the presiding officer or any member of the board who will be a participant in the decision-making process.

(b) The following classes of ex parte

communications are permitted:

- (1) Those which relate solely to matters which a board member is authorized by the board to dispose of on ex parte basis.
- (2) Requests for information with respect to the procedural status of a proceeding.
- (3) Those which all parties to the proceeding agree or which the board has formally ruled may be made on an ex parte basis. [Eff 9/7/82; am, ren and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §91-13)

§13-1-38 Decisions and orders. (a) After all evidence has been taken, the parties may submit, within the time set by the presiding officer, a proposed decision and order which shall include proposed findings of facts and conclusions of law. A party to the proceedings may submit a proposed decision and order which shall include proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. The proposals shall be filed with the board and mailed to each party to the proceeding not later than ten days after the transcript is prepared and available, unless the presiding officer shall otherwise prescribe.

(b) Within the time established by law, if any, or within a reasonable time after the parties have had an opportunity to file objections and exceptions, if applicable, to file briefs and to present oral argument as may have been permitted, the board shall render its findings of fact, conclusions of law and decision and order approving the application, denying the application, or modifying the application by imposing conditions. The vote of each member shall be recorded. Upon agreement by the parties, the provisions of section 91-11, HRS, concerning the examination of evidence and proposed decision, may be waived pursuant to section 91-9(d), HRS.

(c) Every decision and order adverse to a party to the proceeding, rendered by the board in a contested case, shall be in writing or stated in the record and shall be accompanied by separate findings of fact and conclusions of law. If any party to the proceeding has filed proposed findings of fact, the board shall incorporate in its decision a ruling upon the proposed findings so presented.

(d) Decisions and orders shall be served by mailing certified copies thereof to each party at the party's address of record. When service is not accomplished by mail, it may be effected by personal delivery of a certified copy. When a party to a contested case has appeared by a representative or by counsel, service upon the representative or counsel shall be deemed to be service upon the party. [Eff 9/7/82; am, ren and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-9, 91-11, 91-12)

§13-1-39 Reconsideration. (a) Upon a motion of a party, the board may reconsider a decision it has made on the merits only if the party can show that:

- (1) New information not previously available would affect the result; or
- (2) A substantial injustice would occur.

(b) In either case, a motion for reconsideration shall be made not later than five business days after the decision or not less than fourteen days prior to any deadline established by law for the disposition of the subject matter, whichever is earlier. [Eff 9/7/82; am, ren and comp 2/27/09] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 171-6) (Imp: HRS §§91-11, 91-12)

SUBCHAPTER 6

Such party shall serve copies of the brief upon each party to the proceeding.

(b) The brief shall:

- (1) Answer specifically the points of procedure, fact, law, or policy to which exceptions were taken; and
