2022 LĀNA'I MOUFLON SHEEP SPECIAL CONTROL HUNT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARCH 10, 2022

The State of Hawai'i, Department of Land and Natural Resources, Division of Forestry and Wildlife (DOFAW) is pleased to announce a special 2022 Lāna'i Mouflon Sheep control hunt.

Pursuant to Title 13, Chapter 123, "Rules Regulating Game Mammal Hunting" (13-123-4), the following special conditions and procedures will be in effect for this hunt:

Hunting days will be Saturdays and Sundays during the month of April 2022: April 2-3, April 9-10, April 16-17, and April 23-24, 2022.

A limit of 50 non-Lāna'i residents will be allowed per weekend, with no participation limits or call-in requirements for Lāna'i residents. Non-Lāna'i residents will be required to call in and reserve one weekend only. Each group will be limited to eight (8) individuals. Call-ins will begin on Monday, March 21, 2022, from 8 AM until 10 AM and continue each Monday thereafter until all slots are filled. The number to call is (808) 984-8113.

This special control hunt will be limited to ewes, with no bag limit and evidence of sex and species waived. Application and tag fees are waived for this special hunt.

All non-Lāna'i resident hunters participating in the control hunt must sign in next to their names and sign Pūlama Lāna'i waivers at the Forestry and Wildlife Office in Lāna'i City. Upon completion of the hunt, hunters will be required to record their harvest. Lāna'i residents must sign in and out daily, including Pūlama Lāna'i waivers, and indicate harvest. For this special control hunt, Units 1 and 2 will be available for hunting on Saturdays and Sundays.

Due to Covid-19, the special 2022 Lānaʻi Mouflon Sheep control hunt may be canceled at any point prior to or during the season for health and/or safety concerns or for any other unforeseen reasons. All Federal, State and County Covid-19 travel restrictions/guidelines apply and must be adhered to for participation in this hunt.
