Council Member Caceres recused himself

Applicant requested Executive Session

Council and SHPD staff Hilo went into Executive Session

Council emerged from Executive Session

Motion: to decline SHPD's Cultural Descendant Recognition Recommendation

Council members motioned and voted

Motion: to accept SHPD's verbal Lineal Descendant Recognition Recommendation

Council members motioned and voted

Kawaiaha'o Church representatives asked the Council and the applicant for more information about the specific individual to whom the applicant was claiming lineal descendancy from, given the applicant's current litigation against the Church

Council Member Wong-Kalu stated the intent is that the descendancy will serve the iwi kupuna, and positions OIBC to work best with the project proponents in what is done

C. Department's Recommendation to Recognize Alexander L. Akau, Elaine M. Akau, and J. Mahealani McClellan as Cultural Descendants to Human Skeletal Remains Encountered at Kawaiaha'o Church Multipurpose Building Renovation Project, Honolulu Ahupua'a, Kona District, Island of O'ahu, TMK: [1] 2-1-032:017

Council Member Wong-Kalu read the above item onto the record

Summary of discussion, below:

Applicant A. Akau stated his intent is to protect the 'ohana, some family had been moved to Kamoiliili, but is not sure if all 'ohana have been returned

17 years of processing through this

Grandfather who purchased Burial Lot #29 is buried in England; grandmother is buried in Lahaina next to Keopuolani who she served as her retainer

Family doesn't do this in public; Akau read the account onto record

Applicant E. Akau stated a Mr. Young had asked her about her genealogy; Mr. Young was a descendant of Kipi

When placing the new map with the old map, the old map shows the location of the family

E. Akau is claiming for the grandparents

Asking there be no further disturbance of the graves, as the individuals come and visit her

The names of the individuals buried there are known, but not how they were buried Applicant M. McClellan agreed with everything previously stated

M. McClellan stated she is related to others buried at Kawaiaha'o, including Major Kinimaka who is buried there

Macy's, Buckle, Kinimaka have aligned and made these facts evident Asking for consideration as a cultural descendant, will come back later seeking lineal descendancy

Understands that the difference is that lineal descendants have more of a say

Applicant A. Akau presented maps showing Lot 29 burial location, the work done at the former Likeke Hall, and the current footprint of the Multipurpose Building Project

Council Member Wong-Kalu summarized the applicants' discussion; stated the division has recommended cultural recognition; applicants can accept the current cultural descendant recommendation or attend future meetings seeking lineal descendant recognition

Applicants further discussed genealogy and mentioned Abigail Drew, Naope, and another party

Council Member Wong-Kalu asked if the Buckle plot is part of the impacted area

Applicant A. Akau stated that, based on the recommendation provided, the applicants would proceed with the recommendation and action at hand

Council Member Wong-Kalu stated the information submitted by the applicants provided a level of cultural descendant recognition

Individuals in support of the Akau and McClellan ohana cultural descendant recognition in attendance at the OIBC meeting: Wise Keliiaa Nicola; Diane Fitzsimmons; Kaanohi Kaleikini; Bill Haole

*Motion: to accept the Department's recommendation that A. Akau, E. Akau, and J. M.
McClellan be recognized as cultural descendants to human skeletal remains encountered at the Kawaiaha'o Church Multipurpose Building Renovation Project*

Moved by: Member Fermantez
