C. NOMINATIONS

Carlos & Altha Panfigilo
34 Kaapuni Drive
Kailua, Hawaii 96734
(1) 4-3-013:030

This nomination was introduced by Megan Borthwick.

This nomination was presented by Don Hibbard

Questions:

Mr. Casen asked about the columns that were shown. Where is it in relation to the house, is it going to be connected to the house. Is there going to be a first floor on the back of the house?

Mr. Hibbard: It is the rear of the house. They were thinking about putting a 2nd story to the house. They're going to tear it all down. It was all to be torn down, but the husband died away in May.

Mr. Casen then said that before we really pursue this.

Mr. Hibbard said that if this property doesn't go on the register. They are going to tear the house down.

Ms. Peacock stated that Mr. Hibbard comment was inappropriate because its putting pressure on us (Board) to imply that if we don't act it's our fault.

Mr. Hibbard responded you think it's important, does the board think its important?

Ms. Peacock again stated that the comment was inappropriate

Mr. Hibbard stated that he was just letting you know from the other point of view.

Mr. Souza asked do they have plans at the present time ?

Mr. Hibbard stated they are waiting to see if it is put on the register. They have a architect in mind. And will pursue it once it gets on.

Mr. Souza stated that his view for the decision making if there was a rough sketch of what was going to be done. It seems like if we don't do it it's going to be torn down. And that's not on my conscience. I just feel kind of strange about it. I really like this site, and i think its worthy of preservation because of its style and location. That's the reason i was asking about sketches or plans.

Mr. Hibbard stated that they've been holding off waiting. He was going to take the wall out but he died. So, the wife is waiting to see about hiring an architect.

Mr. Casen stated that we can always D list it. The whole process will be going through the preservation office.

Ms. Peacock stated that in your written description there are no google maps or site plans. The beach façade is important in terms to the presentation to the public. What you don't see and cannot see unless you've been to the site. Is that there actually a modern house on the Makai side. That blocks the access visually of this house. Not that you could see this house even if there was another house that was put on the Makai side because of the in infrastructure of these columns and the large solid walls that are slicing within a foot or two the of the house. When i looked at the original plan its seems to be a lot of modification to the house in the wing of the house. I guess the owner decided to flip the plan. In the original site, there is a lot of growth in the bedroom wing. They increased the square footage of the house, in the original drawings its a stager between the garage and the bedroom wing. It doesn't match the architect original drawings. And begs the question was that the architect's intentions. And the entry sequence is different.

Mr. Hibbard stated that its not growth they modified they took out a bathroom.

I think that it was done originally. The walls are original. When they flipped it, the must have done it cause there's no way that's not original. The plans that i have obviously got modified because they flipped it.

Mr. Casen asked Ms. Peacock- you said that there is another house on the Makai side. Is it on the same lot?

Ms. Peacock yes, it's on the same lot. I think a google map, if not a site plan would help. It's hard to see and understand the complexity of what's going on in this site that is not conveyed in any of these photographs.

Ms. Peacock asked why is putting it on the register the reason they would not save the house.

Mr. Hibbard responded it was the only reason they changed their plans because we said this is an important property and should be saved.

Ms. Peacock responded but if they were to remove all this stuff, then come and apply why would that not work ?

Mr. Hibbard I think that they would think that I'm lying to them and that no its not that important and the state thinks that it's not important.

Ms. Peacock responded that if they were told that the addition that they were going to move was the main problem?

Mr. Hibbard responded no they would go back and re think it.

Questions:

Mr. Bantolina- From the original house to the carport up. Was there 10 ft before the house and the carport or was it extended out?

Ms. White responded they moved it back. And was not sure.

Mr. Casen has the railing been changed on the front steps? Is there any logical reason for the design of the current railing compared to the last one? Did they look at pictures? Was there even a railing there historically at all?

Ms. White the pictures don't really tell. The reason that more slats were added was because of building codes standards.

Mr. Downer- The house released the proposed budget. The Historic Preservation Fund Grant was proposed to be cut by 8 million. The house recommended it to be cut by 1million.

This would reduce it back to the same amount last year.

State side the message was that the economy is booming we are expecting a good year.

Jessica Puff has resigned.

G. COMPLETENESS OF NOMINATIONS

Mr. Downer: When policy affects groups of individuals broadly, instead of one or two people then it must be adopted in regulation. A hawaii administrative rule must be written . Then you have to go through the process. If you make any changes to the draft, as a result of comments you have to start the whole process again. As long as it is a direction to staff then it does not have to be a regulation. See Chapter 13-198-3: Nomination procedure. “The preservation officer, or any person or agency may nominate a building, structure, object, district, or site for entry into the Hawaii register. Nominations shall be made on the standard national register nomination forms, available in the office of the preservation officer, in accordance with the technical guidelines for the completion of those forms”. The board agrees that locally submitted nominations will be held to National Standards.
