Newspaper Article Describing Hotel previously located on site and later rehabilitated to serve at the Temple for Haleiwa Jodo Mission

The premises covered by said mortgage and to be sold on said day at such auction, unless the amount due on said mortgage, with foreclosure expenses, are paid, are as follows:

A leasehold made by Kepano Mele and Kaaemoku to Charles David, dated June 23, 1890, recorded in Liber 206, page 399, duly assigned to said Waiialua Hotel Company, Limited, by deed recorded in Liber 240, page 87, the premises included in such lease covers a lot of 47-100 of an acre at Paalaa, Waiialua, Oahu, (very near to the O. R. & L. Co.'s station) fully described as Apana 3 of L. C. Award 2903 to ———, Royal Patent 1491, but excepting a strip occupied by the railway. The said lease is for a term of 15 years from date, at a rental of $120 per annum.

There is standing on said premises a fine, well built two-story building, containing ample room for a small hotel. There are also the necessary outhouses and some furniture, all of which goes with the sale.

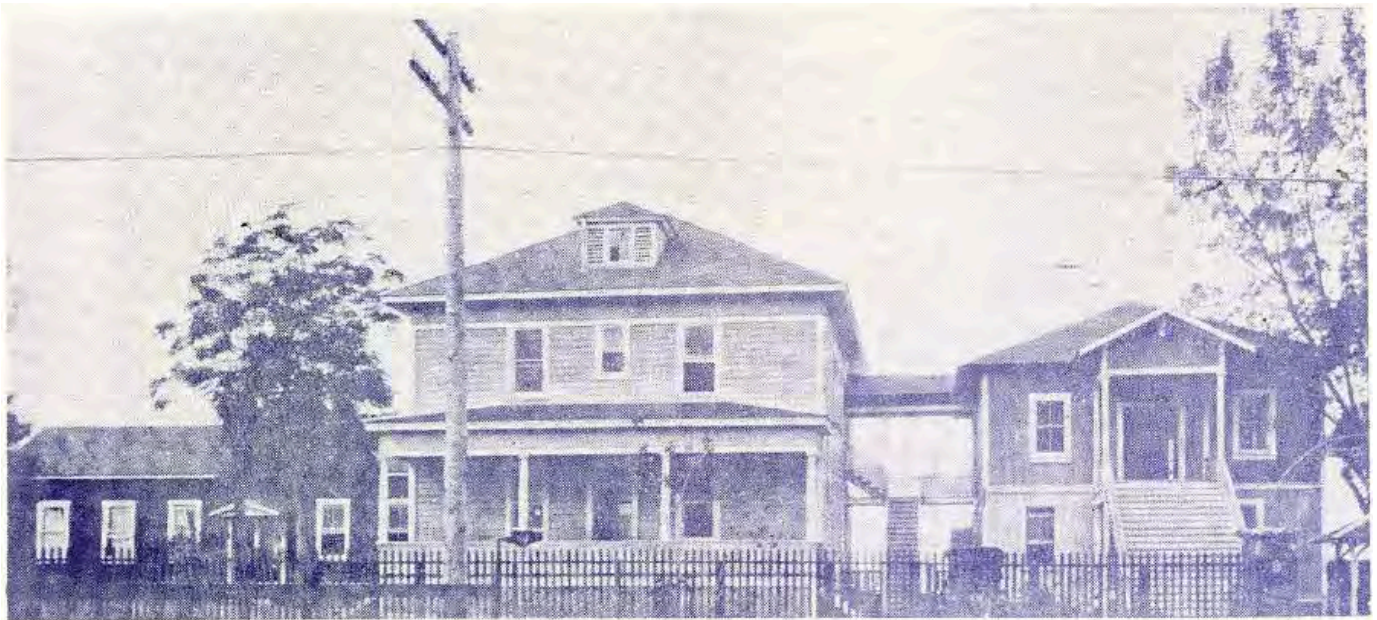

The location is unsurpassed. The finest of sea bathing is close at hand. A wonderful view of ocean, mountain and field refreshes the eye, in every direction. Winter or summer, the climate is all that could be desired.

JODO TEMPLE DAMAGED BY WAVE: This is the Jodo Buddha Temple at Haleiwa beach which was damaged by the recent tidal way on March 9. Originally there were two flights of steps but one is no lying on the ground. The semi-collapsed structure at left is where the "ojizo-sama" was housed.

TAISHO SCHOOL ALSO HIT: This is how the Taisho Japanese Language School buildings at Haleiwa beach, near the Jodo Buddha Temple, looked after it was hit by tidal wave. The partly wrecked house in center was brought there from another place by the force of the wave. The damaged house at right is where Juharuyo Hanayagi a Honolulu dance instructor, was teaching Japanese-style dancing when the first of five or six waves hit.—(Both photos by Honolulu Star-Bulletin)
