

WORLD WETLANDS DAY 2013

Wetlands Take Care of Water

Wetlands play a critical role in sustainable water management. World Wetlands Day celebrates the importance of water and wetlands for enriching our lives.

Visit Kailua's
Super Bowl for:

- Tours of:
 - Kawaiinui Marsh*
 - Ulupō Heiau
 - Hāmākua Marsh
- Pond Restoration
- Wetland Exhibits
- Entertainment
- Food

*Reservations recommended for bus tours of Kawaiinui Marsh. Contact Kaimi at email@ahahui.net or call 263-8008. Tours at 9:30 and 11:30am.

Meet at Ulupō Heiau, Hāmākua Marsh, and at restoration site off Kalaniana'ole Highway by Aoloo Road (past Castle Hospital) at 10:00am and 12:00pm for 1-hour long guided walking tours.

Saturday
February 2
9:00am - 1:30pm
Kailua Methodist Church
1110 Kailua
Road

Additional parking available at St. John Lutheran Church, 1004 Kailua Road. It is a short walk to the Methodist Church.

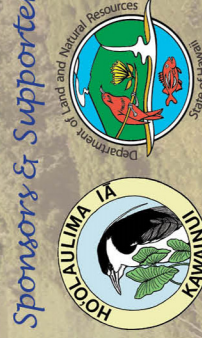

Celebrating Kawaiinui-Hāmākua Marsh - Hawai'i's only Ramsar wetland of international importance.

Dedicated to Ronald Walker who worked tirelessly for the preservation of Kawaiinui-Hāmākua Marsh.

For information & schedule of events:

<http://wwd2013.blogspot.com>
www.ahahui.wordpress.com
www.ramsar.org

Sponsors & Supporters: Ameron Hawaii

All Pool & Spa
Kailua Methodist Church
Kailua Baptist Church
St. John's Lutheran Church
Windward YMCA