Department that are routine in nature, involving negligible impacts beyond that previously existing.”

Cumulative Impact of Planned Successive
Actions in Same Place
Significant:

No, this event occurs at this location annually, not on a routine or regular basis (e.g., daily or weekly).

Action May Have Significant Impact on Particularly Sensitive
Environment:

The requested area is a portion of State coastal land visited by tourists and residents and is used extensively for recreational activity. In addition, based on the analysis below, staff believes there would be no significant impact to sensitive environmental or ecological receptors.

Agencies Consulted:

The DLNR Office of Conservation and Coastal Lands (OCCL) was consulted with regard to the subject surf competition and MDLO staff's recommendation for an exemption from an environmental assessment. OCCL staff responded that they have no objections to the subject surf competition.

Analysis:

The Board has permitted similar events in the past. The proposed activity is of a similar type and scope of coastal activities that periodically occurred and continues to occur on this and other coastal areas across the State. Such activities have resulted in no known significant impacts, whether immediate or cumulative, to the natural, environmental and/or cultural resources in the area. Staff also believes that the request would involve negligible or no expansion or change in use of the subject area beyond that previously existing.

Recommendation:

It is anticipated that this project will probably have minimal or no significant effect on the environment and is presumed to be exempt from the preparation of an environmental assessment.
