1. The FEIS discussed in the Board submittal covers the state action contained in the permit. Therefore, under HAR 11-200.1-11(a) the Board strikes recommendation 1 and finds that the existing FEIS covers the existing state action, the anticipated cumulative effects are similar or the same as the FEIS, and the FEIS already covers the range of alternatives to the proposed action.
2. The Board will add a condition that water from reservoirs shall also be available for fire restoration purposes.
3. The Board will include Na Moku in the interim committee discussed in condition 6 of the staff submittal.
4. Based on the 2018 CWRM Decision and the information presented here, the Board determines that the reasonable-beneficial use for diversified agriculture to permittees EMI and A&B under a month-to-month permit revocable on 30-days' notice is 2500 gad.
5. The Board will not add the additional reporting on diversion structures as suggested by Sierra Club because CWRM has jurisdiction and authority over diversion structures, including removal.
6. The Board finds that water categorized as reservoir, seepage, fire protection, evaporation, dust control, and hydroelectric are reasonable beneficial uses and therefore will not adopt Sierra Club's suggestion to consider those uses as "unused water."
7. Based on the permittees' submission of anticipated increased acreage during the term of the RP, the Board finds that total allowable acreage for purposes of calculating the cap amount of water to be 12,500 acres. The Board finds this to

- be a reasonable estimate for at least six months based on permittees' predictions. If the acreage is planted on time, the Board encourages the permittee to come back to the Board to request an increase based on updated acreage predictions.
8. As a condition of the permit, the permittees shall provide at least 6 mgd to the County of Maui daily, which is the amount the Board finds to be the reasonable beneficial allocation of water.
 9. Therefore, the total cap amount of the permit is 38.25 mgd averaged annually, with 31.25 mgd granted to the permittee for agricultural use, 6 mgd to the county for Kamole Treatment Center, and 1 mgd to Kula Ag.
 10. The cap amount is subject to the current and any future IIFS determinations.
 11. The permittee shall provide a monthly report instead of quarterly. The report will be provided to members of the working group discussed in condition 6.
